Will Eradicate from the Blood and System the Seeds of Disease.

As grains of sand make our lofty moun tains, drops of water the mighty ocean, and as our massive buildings are made of one brick piled upon another, so do the little ills of life contribute to the building up of deadly diseases in the Experienced medical men claim that fully three-fourths of our men and vomen enter the summer season with little ills and symptoms of disease which must develop into serious and fatal troubles if not banished at once. We hear our friends complaining daily of rhermatic tendencies, sharp and darting neuralgic pains, dyspepsia, pains in the side and back, nervousness and sleeplessness; and we see with our own eyes the effects of impure blood in facial biotches, cruptions, and sores. The little lils and pains of to-day build up the alarming and fatal diseases that follow days and weeks of neglect. Wise and intelligent people who have looked into the claims of Paine's Celery less than two weeks, and had been very gentlemanly, and, so far as she knows, was addicted to no bad habits. All his bills were paid. Mrs. Meyer said Doctor Thuman was of a very quiet disposition and seemed to brood much over his failure to secure practice. When he left home last Saturday night he took no clothes, except what he wore. In his room are three trunks—two large ones, containing clothing and books, and a small one, containing a skeleton. Mrs. Meyer said that she did not know that he was a physicion until a few duys ago, and that, so far as she knows, he had no practice in the neighborhood.

Compound and follow its remarkable cures of relatives, friends and neigh-bors, use it themselves with faith and confidence, to banish their symptoms of coming troubles, to cleanse the blood, to re-establish nerve force, energy, and bodily strength, so that they will be in condition to withstand the enervating effects of the coming hot weather.

William Swoby. Thuman's roommate, when seen, said he could ascribe no reason for suicide, but stated that Doctor Thuman had been acting rather peculiarly for several days, though he said nothing about having trouble of any kind. The doctor, Mr. Swoby said, was of a very quiet disposition, and given to grieving over his failure to secure practice. Saturday morning he left the house in excellent spirits.

For some time past Doctor Thuman had been receiving money from a brother, Fred Thuman, in London, and a letter addressed to him, requesting that he send no more money, was found in the doctor's coat pocket. None of Thuman's relatives here can assign any cause for his action. He had sufficient money for his present needs, and as he had beeen but recently graduated from a medical school in Nashville, Tena, could expect but little practice.

He has a brother, John J Thuman, residing at No. 312 Chouteau avenue, who is foreman in the Missouri Pacific shops, and a cousin, William Thuman, residing in East St. Louis.

Plattsburg, N. Y., May 25.-The feeling which has existed between the freshmen and sophomore classes of the University of Vermont culminated here to-day in the drowning of Nelson Pease Bond of Burlington, Vt., treasurer of the freshman class.

The freshmen had arranged to have their annual banquet at the Cumberland House, and Bond, with four other freshmen, came over on the morning boat from Burlington to make the final arrangements. Bond left his companions in the after-

MORSEY MARSHAL

Assistant United States District Attorney Named as Louis C. Boble's Successor.

REGARDED AS KERENS VICTORY.

Akins Bartholdt-Joy Combination Had Indorsed George P. Weinbrenner-Morsey's Standing in Politics.

The Republic Bureau. Washington, May 26.—President Roose-velt to-day settled the long-drawn-out fight over the St. Louis marshalship by the appointment of William L. Morsey in place of L. C. Bohle. It was a fight to a finish, but the outcome was outlined clearly in Fri-

As stated then, the papers had been made out for the appointment of Morsey, but were withheld for a time, at the request of Congressmen Joy and Bartholdt, who insisted on Weinbrenner's appointment. This delay was merely an act of courtesy to them and did not after the final decision in favor of Morsey. He was recom-mended by Postmaster General Payne, who is vice chairman of the National Republican Committee, and the political expert of the administration in contested cases of this kind.

Some time ago the papers were referred to General Payne by the Attorney General, Mr. Knox, who was unable to decide what should be done. The decision of Mr. Payne was based on a desire to give Colonel Kerens, who is a colleague on the National Committee, a little better show than he has received heretofore from President Rosevett. It reopens some very interesting questions, which were thought to have been settled by the turn-down of Smith, the kerens candidate for the St. Louis appraisership.

Payne's Advent Favors Kerens. The Missouri Republicans now will be in fresh doubt as to whether Kerens or Akins has the better pull with President Roosevet. It is certain that the advent of Payne to the administration has greatly improved the standing of Kerens in important contests. Whether Secretary Hitchcock is to retire from the Cabinet yet remains an open question, but it seems certain that his word as to automittents is no final as awainst to appointments is not final as against question, but it seems certain that his word as to appointments is not final as against that of keyens.

It would seem also that the official announcement given out from the White House when the appraisership was settled is to be taken in a Packwickian sense only. This dictum was that "In St. Louis appointments the St. Louis Congressmen would control." They did not control in that case, because they were for Boyd, who was not chosen; nor have they dictated in this matter, having been turned down in their support of Weinbrenner. The consideration they are receiving seems to be of a negative kind and certainly not such as need distress the Kerens men.

Morsey, it is said, has made a fair record. He was a candidate for the marshalship four years ago, but the fight became so warm that eitner he or Rozier must be defeated and Morsey gracefully withdrew, allowing Rozier to get the attorneyship. Morsey then accepted the place of Assistant District Attorney, with the understanding that he would have the Kerens support for promotion at the first opportunity.

Bohle's Remarkable Document.

Bohle's retirement calls attention to a remarkable document he filed "explaining" the charges against him. Tais paper probably has caused as much snickering in Cabinet circles as any of the astonishing literature which from time to time has come from Missouri Republicans. Bohle's explanation of taking companions on his official trips, and using passes, while at the same time charging transportation to the Government, is said to be not only ingenious but original.

Bohle was the one man from Missouri seking an important office who was able to come here and have it cinched at sight. President Roosevelt remarked to him: "Bohle, you are the one man against whom no charges have been filed. You are appointed." When the charges, then overadue, arrived soon afterward, and were followed a few days later by Sohle's explanation, it is said the President was thunder-struck. Bohle was the personal choice of tion, it is said the President was thunder-struck. Bohis was the personal choice of D. M. One part of Mr. Bohie's explanation was One part of Mr. Bonne's that a companion accompanied him at the wish of a member of his family, but, rather unnecessary discussion

Morsey of Warrensburg is one of the most popular Republicans in the State. He practically controls the Republicans of the Ninth Congressional District, State. He practically controls the Republicans of the Ninth Congressional District, being chairman of the Congressional Committee. Four years ago he was a candidate for the State chairmanship against Mr. Akins, but was defeated. He was a candidate for the marshalship, but withdrew when D. M. Houser asked for the appointment of L. C. Bohle, this being done at the solicitation of Colonel Kerens.

When he again asked for the place Colonel Kerens indorsed him strongly. He became the candidate of the country against the city, which was pledged to George P. Weinbrenner. State Chairman Akins indorsed Weinbrenner, believing that as the surveyership of the port had gone to the country, the marshalship should remain in the city. He indorsed Morsey if the appointment were decided by the President to belong to the country.

The contest for the marshalship has been friendly between Messrs. Morsey and Weinbrenner. They are political friends in one sense of the word. Naturally, the appointment of Morsey has elated the friends of Colonel Kerens. This is the first important place which they have gained since President Roosevelt took charge. Coming as it has close after the clever coup in knocking the feet from under the State chairman by making it appear that he had acceded to a harmony "agreement." the appointment is considered singularly opportune.

AMERICAN WARSHIP TO BEAR PAUNCEFOTE'S BODY HOME.

Funeral Services in Washington Will Be Conducted With Great Diguity.

Washington, May 26.-It is evident from the preparations so far made that the funeral of the late Lord Paunceforte will be made a memorable occasion.

All of the available military and naval forces in Washington and vicinity will take part in the procession. The services at St. John's Church will be conducted by Coadjutor Bishop Mackay-Smith, though Bishop Satteriee will attend. Officially the attendance will be confined to the President and his Cabinet, the diplomatic body, the Supreme Court, the mem-bers of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the House Committee on Foreign Affairs and Admiral Dewey and General Miles and their staffs, the bureau chiefs of the State Department and the assistant secretaries from the other departments.

It is pretty well settled that the body of the late Lord Paunceforte will be carried to England on an American warship, and either the Olympia, flagship of the North Atlantic squadron and Admiral Dewey's flagship at Manila, or the Brooklyn, Admiral Schiey's flagship at Santiaso Bay, which is just returning from Cuba, will be selected for this duty.

The date of departure will depend upon the convenience of the Paunceforte family, but it is certain that the body can not be landed on English soil before the conclusion of the coronation ceremonies.

Eureka Springs, Ark., May 28.—Berryville and all points in this section of the State report a tremendous fall of rain last night. The precipitation shown by the Government rain gauge here was one and one-half inches.

Don't,

If you don't want to lose your hair, you will have to do something, that's certain. shall it be?

Use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It gives nourishment and strength to the weakened hair-bulbs, and the hair remains tightly in place.

It does other good things, too. It restores color to gray hair, keeps the scalp clean and healthy, and makes the hair grow heavy and long.

"My hair was falling out very fast and rapidly turning gray, but Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling of the hair and restored it to its natural color."
